12 DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES

- 12.1 If it shall appear to the Board of Directors that any irregularity or breach of these Byelaws or other matter of concern to it, may have occurred, it shall at its discretion appoint an individual who may not be a member of the Company or establish an Investigation Committee with such terms of reference as it sees fit.
- 12.2 If it shall appear to the Board of Directors that there is evidence that any person or affiliated club or organisation is in breach of these Byelaws, or if it shall appear to the Board of Directors that the continued membership of the Company by any person or affiliated club or organisation is detrimental to the Company, the Chief Executive Officer shall write to the party concerned setting out the alleged breach and inviting their comment thereon. This shall be conveyed in writing by a specified date, which unless the Board otherwise directs shall not be less than 14 days after the date the letter was sent.
- 12.3 The Board of Directors shall consider any response at its next convenient meeting. If it is not satisfied that the provisions of these Byelaws have been observed, it shall refer the matter to a Disciplinary Committee appointed by it which shall consist of not less than three or more than five people none of whom shall be directly interested in the matter otherwise than as members of the Company. The Disciplinary Committee shall make further enquiries as it thinks fit. It shall afford to the person or affiliated club or organisation against whom the allegation has been made a reasonable opportunity to appear before it, state its case and answer the allegations brought against it. The committee shall hear such witnesses as the person or affiliated club or organisation reasonably produces. It shall make such procedural provisions as shall be necessary for the just and efficient disposal of the case remitted to it.
- 12.4 The Disciplinary Committee shall report its recommendation and any proposed penalty to the Board of Directors in writing within seven working days and the Board shall determine its decision as soon as practicable thereafter, according to the provision of this rule.

- 12.5 If satisfied that a breach of the Byelaws has occurred, the Disciplinary Committee may recommend to the Board of Directors one or more of the following penalties:
- 12.5.1 Resolve to note the offence but take no further action:
 - 12.5.2 Issue a warning to the person or affiliated club or organisation concerned as to their future conduct
 - 12.5.3 Suspend or disqualify the person or affiliated club or organisation from athletics activity under Welsh Athletics jurisdiction for any period whether fixed or indefinite
 - 12.5.4 such other penalty as the Disciplinary Committee in the circumstances of the case shall consider appropriate.
- 12.6 A term of suspension starts from the time it is pronounced by the Board of Directors unless otherwise stipulated and does not expire until the close of the day named in the decision.
- 12.7 Every person or affiliated club or organisation suspended, expelled or disqualified, or otherwise dealt with shall be notified in writing by hand or by recorded delivery post within seven working days of the decision.
- 12.8 Where an affiliated club or organisation is the subject of action and this rule, it shall be sufficient to give a notice to the Secretary of the club or organisation at its registered address.
- 12.9 Where a person is subject of action under the rule and it appears to the Board of Directors that such person is or may be a member of an affiliated club or organisation a copy of all notices to that person shall be sent to such club or organisation at its registered address.

13 APPEALS

- 13.1 Any person or affiliated club or organisation suspended, expelled or disqualified by a decision of the Board of Directors may appeal against such decision or apply for re-instatement by completing the official application form and forwarding it, together with such fee as the Board shall from time to time determine, to the Chief Executive Officer for consideration by the Board of Directors. The Board may refer such consideration to an Appeals Committee appointed for the purpose.
- 13.2 The members of an Appeals Committee shall be appointed by the CEO and shall be composed of persons who are not directly interested in the outcome of such appeals otherwise than as members of the Company.

- 13.3 The Appeals Committee shall make such procedural provision as shall be necessary for the just and efficient disposal of the case remitted to it and shall report its recommendation to the Board of Directors in writing within seven working days and the Board shall determine its decision as soon as practicable thereafter.
- 13.4 The person or affiliated club or organisation submitting the appeal shall be notified in writing by recorded delivery post within seven working days of the decision of the Board of Directors.
- 13.5 Where an affiliated club or organisation is the subject of notification under this rule, it shall be sufficient to give notice to the secretary of the club or organisation at its registered address.
- 13.6 Where a person is the subject of notification under this rule and it appears to the Board of Directors that such a person is or may be a member of an affiliated club or organisation a copy of such notice shall be sent to such club or organisation at its registered address.
- 13.7 Any member of Welsh Athletics Ltd, having exhausted the appeal procedures set out under this rule, may appeal to the members Council of UK Athletics against any disciplinary decision of this Company. In any appeal in such circumstances the decision of the said Council shall be final.

14 BYELAWS DOCUMENT

- 14.1 The Chief Executive Officer shall maintain a true copy of the Memorandum of Association, the Articles of Association and the Byelaws of Welsh Athletics Limited.
- 14.2 Each clause shall be recorded on a separate removable page(s), signed and dated by the Board Chair and the Chief Executive Officer.
- 14.3 In the case of an amendment, the whole of a clause shall be re-written and entered in place of the old clause with the date of change recorded. The old clause should be retained for reference purposes.
- 14.4 Copies of changes shall be displayed on the Welsh Athletics website.

15 INTERPRETATION

- 15.1 If, at any General Meeting or meeting of the Board of Directors or meeting of the General Council, a dispute should arise over the interpretation of any part of these Byelaws, or any point arise not covered by these Byelaws but on which a ruling is deemed necessary, the Chair of the meeting shall interpret such a point or make such a ruling.

- 15.2 All present at the meeting shall be bound by the Chair's interpretation or ruling.

- e) In addition, the athlete must be registered with Welsh Athletics on the day of the event AND they may not have competed in the championships of, nor represented another Region or County in that competition year.

17 CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

- 17.1 As much of the funding Welsh Athletics Ltd receives is from external funding bodies and includes public funds, it is vital that Welsh Athletics Ltd, as an organisation, is accountable to its external funding bodies. For this reason, rules have been developed for employees (and other individuals involved in our work including all Athletics committees, task groups and regional councils) regarding the following matters:
- a) Outside commitments
 - b) the declaration of conflicts of interest
 - c) the receipt of gifts and hospitality
 - d) relationships with contractors
 - e) sponsorship and endorsements
- 17.2 All individuals involved in Welsh Athletics activities are required to declare any external interest which might conflict with Welsh Athletics interest.
- 17.3 Welsh Athletics Ltd is aware that fraud is an ever-present threat to its resources. The Company has therefore adopted an anti-fraud and corruption policy.
- 17.4 The Conflicts of Interest form may be accessed from the Welsh Athletics Office.

18 STANDING ORDERS

Note: Use of the masculine pronouns (he, him etc.) shall be deemed to apply equally to the feminine.

- 18.1 The Chair of the board shall take the Chair at AGMs and EGMs and, in the absence of the Chair the Vice Chair of the board shall take the Chair.
- 18.2 The Chair of the Board shall take the chair at general meetings and meetings of the Board of Directors and, in the absence of the Chair, the Vice Chair of the Board shall take the chair.
- 18.3 All committees shall elect one of their members to be Chair. In the absence of the Chair, each committee shall elect one of their members to be Chair before proceeding to business.
- 18.4 No business other than the formal adjournment of the meeting shall be transacted at any meeting of the Welsh Athletics Limited unless a quorum is present.
- 18.5 If within half an hour from the time appointed for the holding of any meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, or such other place as the Chair shall appoint, and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present shall be a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was called.
- 18.6 Meetings of the Board of Directors, Annual and Extraordinary General Meetings shall be convened by the Chief Executive Officer.
- 18.7 The Secretaries of the Athletics Committees shall be responsible for convening meetings, keeping minutes and submitting minutes to the General Council for action where appropriate.
- 18.8 Not less than 14 clear days' notice, in writing, shall be given of all meetings other than the Annual and Extraordinary General Meetings. Every notice of every meeting shall specify the place, day and hour of the meeting and the nature of the business to be transacted.
- 18.9 In the case of an Extraordinary General Meeting, the Officer appointed shall prepare copies of relevant information for presentation to the Meeting.
- 18.10 Notice of every meeting shall be sent to every Member entitled to attend.

- 18.11 The Annual Report and the certified Statement of Accounts shall be distributed together at least 21 days before the Annual General Meeting.
- 18.12 At any meeting every question shall be decided by a show of hands unless a ballot is: -
- 18.12.1 Directed by the Chair, or
- 18.12.2 Demanded by not less than three persons present and entitled to vote.
- 18.13 The Board of Directors and Committees may co-opt additional members until the next AGM for special purposes or needs and such co-opted members shall be entitled to vote.
- 18.14 Unless otherwise provided by the Articles of Association or the Byelaws, all business of any meeting of the Board shall be decided by a bare majority of the votes properly recorded at such meetings.
- 18.15 Not less than 90 days before the date of the AGM, the Chief Executive Officer of Welsh Athletics Limited shall issue a preliminary notice of the Meeting which shall specify the date of the Meeting, the business to be transacted, the offices for which nominations are required, the rights to submit notices of motion and the closing date for the receipt of nominations and motions.
- 18.16 The preliminary notice shall be sent to every affiliated member including the members of the Board of Directors. Such preliminary notices shall not count as formal notices of meetings such as required by the Byelaws.
- 18.17 Notices for nomination shall not bear the names of existing officers or other members willing to stand.
- 18.18 The Board of Directors shall cause minutes to be kept of all appointments, of all resolutions and proceedings of all meetings of the Board.
- 18.19 Except as provided by Standing Orders, every notice of motion to be placed on the Agenda for any General Meeting shall be sent in writing to the Company Secretary of Welsh Athletics Limited at least 42 days before the date of the meeting.
- 18.20 Any affiliated club and association and any member of the Board of Directors may submit a notice of motion. Every notice of motion shall be relevant to some question over which the meeting has power or which affects Welsh Athletics Limited and its operations.

- 18.21 The following motions may be moved without notice:
- 18.21.1 Appointment of a Chair of the Meeting at which the motion is made.
 - 18.21.2 Motions related to the accuracy of the minutes, closure, adjournment, order of business or next business.
 - 18.21.3 Reference to a Committee.
 - 18.21.4 Adoption of reports and recommendations of committees and Officers and any consequent resolutions.
 - 18.21.5 That leave be given to withdraw a motion.
 - 18.21.6 Amendments to motions.
 - 18.21.7 Extending the time limit for speeches.
 - 18.21.8 That an item of business specified in the summons has precedence.
 - 18.21.9 That a member named under 18.36 be not further heard or do leave the meeting.
- 18.22 A motion to vary the order of business on the ground of urgency may, at any time when an item of business on the Agenda has been disposed of, be proposed either by the Chair or any member. If proposed by the Chair, it may be put to the vote without being seconded and without discussion.
- 18.23 Irrespective of whether the election is made at an Annual General Meeting or by the Board of Directors, any affiliated club, Regional Council or Affiliated Association may submit one nomination for any officer, delegate etc. of Welsh Athletics Limited. Nominations shall be made in writing and sent to the Company Secretary, or such other person appointed by the Board of Directors, not less than 42 days before the date of the meeting at which the election is to be made.
- 18.24 On the occasion of more than one nomination for appointment of the President, a ballot shall be carried out of those eligible to vote at the Annual General Meeting; scrutineers for such ballots shall be appointed from those present at the meeting but shall not be one of the nominees for election.

- 18.25 If there is only one nominee for any office, such nominee shall not be deemed automatically to have been elected but shall be submitted to the vote on the day of the AGM. If the majority of votes are cast against the sole nominee, a vacancy shall arise. If there is more than one nominee for any position, other than that of an officer, voting shall proceed in such a manner that the successful candidate shall have at least 50 per cent of the votes cast. This means that if there are more than two candidates and no candidate has more than 50 per cent of the votes cast the candidate with the least votes shall drop out of the election, and so on.
- 18.26 Holders of any office elected at an Annual General Meeting shall hold office for two years and, unless re-elected, shall vacate their office at the conclusion of the Annual General Meeting at which his successor is appointed or he is relieved of his office.
- 18.27 The Board of Directors shall fill any vacancy which may arise in respect of any office but may not appoint any person who, at any time, has been an unsuccessful sole nominee for the office to be filled.
- 18.28 A motion or amendment shall not be discussed unless it has been proposed and seconded and unless notice has already been given in accordance with Standing Order 19.19. All amendments to a motion shall be submitted to the Chair in such a manner as the Chair shall decide.
- 18.29 At all General Meetings, a member shall stand when speaking and shall address the Chair. If two or more members rise, the Chair shall call on one to speak. At all other meetings it shall be at the discretion of the meeting as to whether members shall stand when speaking.
- 18.30 A member shall direct his speech to the question under discussion:
- 18.31 If an amendment be rejected, other amendments may be moved on the original motion. If an amendment be carried, the motion as amended shall take the place of the original motion and shall become the motion upon which any further amendment may be moved.
- 18.32 A further amendment shall not be moved until the meeting shall have disposed of every amendment moved previously.
- 18.33 No member shall speak more than once on any motion except to move a further amendment, or on any amendment except in the exercise of the right of reply given by Standing Order 18.39 or on a point of order or by way of personal explanation or to move 'that the question be now put'.
- 18.34 The Chair shall determine the sequence and length of debate.

- 18.35 A member may rise to a point of order or in personal explanation, with the approval of the Chair, the decision of the Chair shall be final.
- 18.36 The Proposer of the Notice of Motion must be present to speak to the notice.
- 18.37 A motion or amendment may be withdrawn by the proposer with the consent of the seconder.
- 18.38 When a motion is under debate no other motion shall be moved except the following:
- 18.38.1 to amend the motion
 - 18.38.2 to postpone consideration of the motion
 - 18.38.3 that the proposal be now put
 - 18.38.4 that the matter of debate be referred back to the Board of Directors or Committee
- 18.39 If at any meeting, in the opinion of the Chair, a member's conduct is deemed to be inappropriate he will be asked to leave the meeting.
- 18.40 If after a motion under Standing Order 18.36 has been carried and the misconduct or obstruction is continued and in the opinion of the Chair renders the despatch of business impossible, the Chair may without question adjourn or suspend the sitting of the meeting for such period as he shall consider expedient.
- 18.41 The proposer of a motion shall have a right to reply at the close of a debate upon such a motion immediately before it is put to the vote or before any motion in Standing Order 18.33 is put. If an amendment is proposed, he shall be entitled to reply at the close of the debate upon the amendment. A member exercising right of reply, shall not introduce new matter and a decision shall be taken without further discussion.
- 18.42 With the consent of his seconder and of the Chair, a member may alter a motion which he has proposed or of which notice has been given, if the alteration is one which could have been moved as an amendment.
- 18.43 In specific circumstances a member may move that the meeting do adjourn but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting except such as was set out in the notice of the original meeting.
- 18.44 Any subsequent motion to extend the time, at which the meeting shall adjourn, shall be carried by the majority of the members present entitled to vote.

- 18.45 The Chair, before putting the motion for the adjournment shall determine any items of business that may be concluded without debate.
- 18.46 The chair will confirm the adjournment of the meeting.
- 18.47 In the event of a person nominated by a Committee to attend a Board of Directors meeting is unable to do so then a substitute appointed by that Committee may attend and vote provided that the Chair or Company Secretary is informed beforehand.

19 DISSOLUTION

In the event of Welsh Athletics Ltd ceasing to operate, the normal clauses for closure of the company apply so that any assets are wisely used for the development of athletics and not for any personal gain.
