runbritain Road Shows in Wales 2010

Involved in Road Running in Wales?

If so you are invited an open forum to discuss the challenges for road running in the future. Leading the evenings will be Geoff Wightman, the Managing Director of British Road Running.

The evening will be focused around: the background to RunBritain; current and future projects; areas of support for race organisers; online licensing/race entries; website editorial promotion of races; feedback and guidance on local issues and open questions.

Following a successful evening in Abergele there is another opportunity which is FREE. To attend, please notify the Welsh Athletics Office a week in advance

The venue is:-

SAT NAV

1. Swansea Village Hotel

Langdon Road (Off Fabian Way)
<http://www.village-hotels.co.uk/hotels/swansea>

Saturday 25th September SA1 8QY

The forum will commence at 5:00pm with tea/coffee from 4.30pm. Places will be granted on a first come, first serve basis and a maximum of 30 places are available. Applications to the Welsh Athletics office on 02920.644870 or email - office@welshathletics.org or in writing at the address above.

NOTE: During the day on Saturday 25th September 2010 at the Village Hotel, Swansea a UKA Road Race Directors Course will be held. For further information, costs and application process please contact:
